1. Introduction

STANCO PROJECTS LTD.

Stanco Projects Ltd designs, supplies and installs systems for a wide variety of industrial, municipal and commercial clients. Systems include bulk chemical handling equipment particularly in respect of water and wastewater treatment chemicals, municipal water storage tanks and aluminum geodesic dome structures. Our reputation is one of excellence in customer service, quality of systems performance and provision of superior, technologically advanced products.

Stanco Projects Ltd. staff includes highly trained professionals with experience in a wide variety of engineering disciplines. Our mission statement is to develop with our clients an engineered solution to process problems incorporating efficient, effective systems designed for maximum reliability with close attention given to operational economy and ease of maintenance. We are constantly investigating new technologies to allow our staff to offer our clients the latest developments in process equipment.

Stanco Projects Ltd. stresses the importance of customer service in developing and maintaining close ties with our clients to foster a mutual understanding of the process parameters in order to tailor the solutions to each individual customer's requirements.

From initial concept discussions through detailed engineering, equipment procurement to installation and final commissioning and start up, Stanco does it all.
